

SEN Information Report

At The Shrubbery School, children can receive extra support from an additional teacher working in small groups.

The decision for children to work in the Learning Support Group is made after requests from the Class Teacher and observation by the Learning Support Teacher. Parents and children are always consulted and the timetable is constructed around the need of the child.

Progress meetings with parents, children and teachers form part of this support.

Currently twenty five children receive this support.